WILCOX'S
IMPROVED STEAM WATER LIFTER
IS A STEAM PUMP,
WITHOUT ENGINE, PISTON OR PLUNGER,

Using Steam direct from the Boiler, without the intervention of any other machinery. It has won FOUR FIRST PREMIUMS at California State Fairs, within the last five years.

It is used on the Central and Western Pacific Railroads, from Oakland to Ogden.

It is used for Mining in Shafts, in Tunnels and Placer Diggings.

It is used for Water Works, for Irrigation and Watering Stock, for House and Farm use, for Sprinkling Streets, Draining Ponds, and Pumping for Sinking Wells.

Several of the Lifters can be seen at work near Woodland.

Merits Worthy of Consideration:

CHEAPNESS.—Its cost is less than one-half that of any other Steam Pump of like capacity.

ECONOMY OF STEAM.—It uses the exhaust steam alone for its suction, and the expansive power is applied direct, instead of wasting a large percentage on the friction of pistons and other machinery.

ITS ADAPTABILITY FOR DEEP WELLS, SHAFTS AND TUNNELS.—Will work well in Wells and Shafts from 100 to 200 feet in depth, and in Tunnels from 500 to 1000 feet in length, whether straight or angular. There is neither steam nor smoke escaping in the shaft or tunnel.

NOT DERANGED BY MUDDY WATER.—Having neither piston nor packing, the common derangement from grit is not incurred. Hence its great durability.

ANY PERSON CAN RUN IT.—It being so simple in construction and action, any person of ordinary intelligence can run it with safety.

They are made of any capacity, from 1,000 gallons to 100,000 gallons per hour.

For $75 I will sell a Water Lifter of 1,000 gallons per hour capacity; and for $85 I will furnish a boiler, with all necessary attachments, that will be sufficient to raise 1000 gallons 50 feet in one hour. All other sizes correspondingly low.

Parties can see them in operation at my shop, or one at the Presidio, San Francisco, daily driving 3000 gallons per hour up a slope 2,500 feet, with a perpendicular raise of 100 feet.

The Domestic Sewing Machine has just been introduced into this State, and is now offered to the public. It has a self-adjusting tension, which requires no alteration in changing the thread, or in sewing different thicknesses. In simplicity and durability it is unequaled. Terrible Magazine Explosion—Three Hundred Women and Children Killed.

[New York World Correspondence.]

PARIS, May 18.—A terrific explosion occurred yesterday at 5:30 P. M. I, who am a mile from the scene of the disaster thought I was a dead man. I have a powder magazine about one hundred and fifty yards from me. Yesterday morning there were thirty-five or forty railway vans discharging shells into it. When I heard the series of explosions I made sure it was the above mentioned magazine which had blown up, for the reports were deafening—the house shivered, the windows rattled, every woman was shrieking, children were sobbing, National Guards were running wildly about, crying, "To arms! to arms!" I looked around me to see which wall of the house would fall first. Finding it remain firm on its foundation, I went to the window to find the street filled with a terrified crowd, but nobody could discover the source of the detonation, until a man cried, "Do look there!" An extraordinary sight presented itself. A ball six or seven times as large as the Federal Capitol floated in mid-air. It was smoke, but so black and so dense that the rays of the setting sun were distinctly visible as pencils of light protruding on every side beyond it, like the solar spectrum seen in a drak room when beams penetrate some shutter's crevice. The huge ball floated motionless, and gave no sign of merging into air.

Presently volumes of thinner smoke curled fitfully upward, and now and then forked tongues of flame ran nervously from the bottom to the top. "The Hotel des Invalides has been blown up" was the general cry. Down towards it an inundation of human beings poured in constantly gathering floods, which choked even the broad outer boulevards. Windows had lost all their glass, and dinner-tables had been overturned and their china vessels shattered. But 'twas not the Invalides; it was the extensive cartrige manufactory on the Champ de Mars which had exploded. When the catastrophe occurred the streets were full of people returning home to dinner. They thought a battery of mitrailleuses was planted at the street corner, and was throwing volleys down it. Every person fell flat on the ground. As one drew near the Champ de Mars the sight baffled description.

Arms, legs, hands, heads, some of them still quivering with vestages of life, the majority blackened with powder and with fire, were to be found every ten paces one made down the street. There was not a whole window anywhere to be seen. Cartridges, or balls, or cartridge papers, were strewn broadcast. I picked up a chassepot ball, melted and flattened to the length of four inches. Three hundred yards from the scene of explosion, the naked trunk of a woman was found; head and limbs had been torn off. The number of victims has not yet been ascertained.

Three hundred is the lowest estimate. Five hundred people were employed in the manufactory; but two hundred leave work at 4:20 P. M. each day. It is believed the building contained three hundred women when the explosion took place. These all perished, and are not the only victims. A model lodging house, called Cite Napoleon, has been so much damaged that its fall is hourly expected. A great many of its tenants were killed. All the wounded solders in the ambulance of Rue de la University were killed. A woman standing at a window had one arm pulled out of its socket, and she died instantly from the nervous shock and terror. One woman leaped from her window and was killed. In the same house an infant was rent to pieces in a cradle. Avenue de la Bourdonnage has scarcely a house standing. Houses four stories high are a mass of rubbish. For some time after the explosion the neighborhood witnessed maddening scenes. Panic-stricken horses galloped wildly in every direction.

Women, some with dead babies in their arms, ran to and fro shrieking hysterically; children screamed for their parents; people frantically threw out of the windows everything they could lay hands on. But for the prompt arrival of the firemen the disasters would have been still greater, for there were a thousand barrels of powder in neighboring magazines, and the fire was rappidly gaining them: All the sheds on the eastern side of the Champ de Mars were in flames. The powder was stored in cellars under them. several hundred vehicles of every description—omnibusses, ambulance wagons, hacks, railway wagons—were soon on the spot carrying away the victims. Some of these vehicles had eight, none had less than two, corpses or wounded persons.

One Hundred Guests at a Wedding Mysteriously Poisoned.

[From the Dubuque (Iowa) Telegraph, June 2.]

On Thursday, Grant, the ticket agent of the Des Moines Valley Railroad, was married at Fort Dodge, to a young lady named Miss York. Numerous invitations were extended to the leading citizens and their families to be present at the feast. In the evening the house of Mrs. York, the brides mother, was thrown open, and about 9 o'clock no less than two hundred ladies and gentlemen sat down to partake of the elegant repast that had been prepared. The affair proceeded pleasantly till shortly after 10 o'clock, when some of the visitors were taken ill quite suddenly and had to be removed. Others were similarly effected in rapid succession, and presently the horrid suspicion flashed across the minds of all that they had been poisoned. The bride and groom became ill, and were taken to their room.

Every physician in the city was summoned, but as many of these were at the feast, they were also ill, and unable to even properly attend to themselves. The victims were removed to their homes, and groans and moaning were heard in almost every household. The pain and sickness was almost beyond description. Up to Saturday at noon 147 persons had undergone agonies worse almost than death, and a number of others were becoming ill. Dr. Greason, a physician, after having done all in his power to relieve forty of the sufferers, was taken down himself. The effects were certainly those of poison. In many cases the sufferers were afflicted with temporary paralysis, losing all power over their limbs. Almost all of them underwent a relapse, from which some may never recover. Various theories as to the cause of the poisoning are afloat. The most probable theory is that the cause was the ice-cream. The cream was secured by Mrs. York, and given to a confectioner to freeze. In performing the work, he used a copper refrigerator lined with tin. The confectioner had no idea that the refrigerator had not been properly cleaned, for he partook of the ice-cream himself and became sick.

The Blue Laws.

Many of our readers, who have often heard of the Connecticut "blue laws," have probably never have had an opportunity of perusing that famous code. The territory now comprising the State of Connecticut was formerly two colonies—Connecticut and New Haven. The colony of Connecticut was planted by emigrants from Massachusetts at Windsor, in 1633, and at Hartford and Wethersfield in 1635 and 1636. The other colony, styled by its founders, the Dominion of New Haven, was settled by emigrants from England, 1638. The two colonies were united in 1665.

The statutes copied below from an ancient volume relating to the history of the American colonies, were enacted by the people of the "Dominion of New Haven." The Governor and magistrates, convened in general assembly, are the supreme power under God of this independent dominion. From the determination of the assembly no appeal shall be made. The Governor is amenable to the voice of the people. The Governor shall have a single vote in determining any question, except a casting vote, when the assembly shall be equally divided. The assembly of the people shall not be dismissed by the Governor, but shall dismiss itself. Conspiracy against this dominion shall be punished with death. Whosoever says there is a power and jurisdiction above and over this dominion, shall suffer death and the loss of his property. Whosoever attempts to change or overturn this dominion shall suffer death.

The judge shall determine controversies without a jury. No one shall be a freeman or give a vote unless he be converted, and a member in full communion of one of the churches in this dominion. Each freeman shall swear by the blessed God to bear true allegiance to this dominion, and that Jesus is the only king. No Quaker, or dissenter from the established worship of this dominion, shall be allowed to give a vote for the election of magistrate or any officer. No feed or lodging shall be offered to a Quaker, Adamite or other heetic. If any person turns Quaker, he shall be banished and not suffered to return, but on pain of death. No priest shall abide in the dominion; he shall be banished, and suffer death on his return. Priests may be siezed by any one without a warrant.

No one to cross a river, but with an authorized ferryman. No one shall run on the Sabbath day, or walk in his garden, or elsewhere, except reverently to and from meeting. No one shall travel, cook victuals, make beds, sweep house, cut hair, or shave on the Sabbath day. No woman shall kiss her children on the Sabbath or fasting day. The Sabbath shall begin at sunset on Saturday. To pick an ear of corn growing in a neighbor's garden will be deemed theft. A person accused of trespass in the night, shall be judged guilty, unless he clear himself by oath. When it appears that an accused has confederates, and he refuses to discover them he may be racked.

No one shall buy or sell lands without permission of the selectmen. A drunkard shall have a master appointed by the selectmen, who are to debar him from the liberty of buying and selling. Whosoever publishes a lie, to the prejudice of his neighbor, shall be set in the stocks, or be whipped ten stripes. Every reteable person who refuses to pay his proportion to support the minister of the town or parish, shall be fined by the Court £1 and £4 every quarter, until he or she pay the rate to the minister.

Whoever wears clothes trimmed with gold, silver or bone lace above two shillings per yard, shall be presented by the grand jurors, and the selectmen shall tax the offender £300 estate. A debtor in prison swearing he has no estate shall be let out and sold to make satisfaction. Whosoever sets a fire in the woods, and it burns a house, shall suffer death; and persons suspected of this crime shall be imprisoned without benefit of bail. Whosoever bring cards or dice into this dominion, shall pay a fine of five pounds. No one shall read common prayer books, keep Christmas or set days, eat minced pies, dance, play cards, or play on any instrument of music, except the drum, trumpet and Jews harp.

No gospel minister shall join people in marriage. The magistrates only shall join them in marriage, as they may do it with less scandal to Christ's church. When parents refuse their children convenient marriages the magistrates shall determine the point. The selectmen, on finding children ignorant, may take them away from their parents and put them in better hands, at the expense of their parents. A man that strikes his wife shall pay a fine of ten pounds. A woman that strikes her husband shall be punished as the court directs. A wife shall be deemed good evidence against her husband. No man shall court a maid in person, or by letter, without first obtaining consent of her parents; £5 penalty for the first offence; £10 for the second; and for the third, imprisonment during the pleasure of the court. Married persons must live together or be imprisoned. Every male shall have his hair cut according to a cap.

[NOTE.—The above laws were originally printed on blue paper, on which account they were called the "Blue Laws."]—Boston Courier.

COLORED POPULATION.—By the full census returns it appears that the total colored population of the United States and Territories in 1870 was 4,857,000, against 33,600,534 whites—a little more than one colored to seven whites. The total colored population in 1860 was 4,427,065; increase in ten years, 429,935; about 9½ per cent. The increase of whites for the same period was about 25 per cent., whereof about one-sixth was from foreign immigration, there being no colored increase from that source.

Death of Mr. Vallandigham.

CINCINNATI, June 17th.—Mr. Vallandigham died at Lebanon at eighteen minutes before ten this morning. He went down very rapidly after three o'clock, having no pulse, scarcely, after that hour. Dr. Dawson, of Cincinnati, arrived at three, but was too late to do any good for the dying man. Judge Haynes, his law partner, from Dayton, reached Lebanon this morning, with other personal friends, who were with him in his last hours. McGehan, in the prosecution of whose case he lost his life, was taken from jail this morning to the bedside, and shed tears as he beheld the dying friend who had appeared during the progress of the trial to summon all his energy and legal ability in his defence.

PARTICULARS TO THE ACCIDENT.

CINCINNATI, June 17th—The Cincinnati Commercial has the following account of the accident to Mr. Vallandigham: It appears that no one was present with him, when the accident occurred, but ex-Lieutenant-Governor McBurney, who had been associated with him in defence of McGehan. McBurney expressed some doubts as to the theory that Meyers had shot himself, and Mr. Vallandigham picked up a pistol from the table, saying he would show him in half a second. Two pistols were on the table, one unloaded, and he, by mistake, took up the loaded one. He put it in his pocket, and withdrew it, keeping the muzzle next his body. Just as it was leaving his pocket it was discharged, the ball entering, it is said, near the same place Meyers was shot. He at once exclaimed, "Oh, murder!" and said he had taken the wrong pistol. While the examination was going on, he watched the surgeons at work with eager eyes, and even assisted them in their search for the ball.

GENERAL SORROW MANIFESTED.

CINCINNATI, June 17.—There has been much sorrow manifested here today concerning the tragic end of Mr. Vallandigham, and it has been by no means confined to his political friends. Persons who have differed with him on his course during the rebellion, expressed no less regret at the calamity which had befallen him than his political associates. The news concerning his last hours has been devoured with avidity, and newspaper reporters who came from the scene this evening have been dilligently sought for.

MR. VALLANDIGHAM UNAWARE OF THE SEVERE NATURE OF HIS WOUND.

It appears that when the pistol was discharged Mr. Vallandigham was hardly aware of the severe nature of the wound, as he walked around a while before lying down. Governor McBurney became alarmed by the accident, and rushed to the adjoining rooms, and at once summoned aid. As soon as persons came, Vallandigham said that it was a foolish act, and later adverted to it as

THE MOST FOOLISH ACT IN HIS LIFE.

Although he seemed to be conscious that he was badly hurt, he appeared to be decidedly hopeful. During the early hours, Rev. Mr. Haight called to see him, and Vallandigham taking him by the hand said, substantially, that he had too much faith in the Calvinistic doctrine to believe that he would not get safely through this misfortune. Once he told the surgeons to take care of the pain and he would manage the rest.

WHEN INFORMED OF THE APPROACH OF DISSOLUTION

He was calm, and met the news of his condition bravely. After Dr. Reeve arrived from Dayton he soon had the room cleared, and when no one was present, intimated to Mr. Vallandigham the very serious nature of his wound. The patient, seeking for something on which to build hope, reminded the doctor of two bad cases of injuries which had not proved fatal, known to both, and asked if this was worse than they; to which the reluctant reply was, "Possibly not." The Doctor then told Mr. Vallandigham, who was suffering from pain, that they would have to administer a sedative, and suggested that if he had anything to say he had better communicate it then. He then conversed with the Doctor concerning private matters, giving directions in regard to his business, after which a preparation to relieve pain was injected by the hypodermic process. After this, there was no time when he was not under the influence of opiates, and they affected somewhat his sensibilities. He nevertheless appeared to keep

POSSESSION OF HIS FACULTIES TO THE LAST.

At 3:30 o'clock he seemed to be dying, and his friends were called to his bedside. From that time he sank rapidly. The pulsations at the wrist appeared to have ceased, though he was remarkably calm—so much so that Dr. Drake said he was the coolest man, under such circumstances, that he had ever seen. He still showed occasional signs of agony about the face, and as death approached, his face wore an ashy paleness. His last words were a request for ice and medicine to allay his pain. During the last moments, his face indicated great physical suffering, and at 18 minutes to 10

HE WAS DEAD.

His son Charles, his only surviving child, seventeen years old, one of his nephews and one of his wife's nephews, were the only relatives present at the death-bed, Mrs. Vallandigham having started for Cumberland, Maryland only last evening, called there by the death of her brother.

THE BODY CONVEYED TO DAYTON.

The body of Mr. Vallandigham was taken to Dayton this afternoon, in charge of judge Haynes and Judge McKenney, of Dayton.

NEW uses for paper are continually discovered. One of the latest is to employ it for the manufacture of railroad wheels. The paper is cut into discs the diameter of the wheel, less the thickness of the tire, and subjected to a pressure of one and a half tons to the square inch, and secured by iron flanges held by bolts passing through them and the paper. The wheel then receives a steel iron flaged tire. The advantages claimed for the use of paper for this puspose are, that it is noisless, does not swell or shrink with the weather, affords a stay to the tire and a lateral support in turning curves, adapts itself to any trifling equality of the inner surface of the surrounding tire, and is stronger than any other material of the same weight of which wheels can possibly be made.

A Wise Course.

One of the leading objects of the so-called Ku-Klux law passed by Congress, was to impose such intolerable burdens and insults upon the Southern people as to exasperate them to resistance of the law and manifestations of turbulence, and create an apparent excuse for placing the entire South under martial law and excluding the votes of those States from the Electoral College. Thus far the people of that section have foiled the purpose of the Radical leaders by sagaciously submitting to everything without a murmur, and even refraining from active participation in the party movements preparatory for the next Presidential contest. The Montgomery Advertiser, a very able and influential paper, says: "It is a fixed determination of Southern Democrats and Conservatives to commit to Northern and Western men the selection of the Presidential ticket and the writing of the platform for the election of 1872, and that we propose to accept the platform and ticket in perfect good faith. From this time until after the Presidential election, let it be understood that it is for Northern and Western Democrats and anti-Radicals to declare what citizens among their own number shall be chosen for the Presidency and Vice Presidency of the United States, and what shall be the character of the resolutions adopted by the National Democratic Convention." On the same subject the Richmond Dispatch says: "The South is willing and ready to join hands with Mr. Adams. And were even Jeff. Davis himself to counsel our people to bolt and refuse to support the nominees of the Democratic National Convention, and thus indirectly assist in electing the Radical candidate to the Presidency, there would not be one white man in a hundred who would take his advice. We repeat here what we said a month or two ago, that all the delegates from the South to the National Convention who would refuse to support a candidate nominated upon the Walker platform (Vallandigham platform if you prefer so to call it), could not induce a single Southern State to bolt. The National Convention may adopt this platform and nominate 'live' candidates with the most perfect confidence that, let would-be leaders say and do what they will, the Southern Conservatives and Democrats will carry their several States for those nominated." There can be no question but the South is substantially unanimous on this subject. It is equally certain that the course indicated is the true line of policy, and will lead to the most beneficent results—not only to the South but to the whole country.—Oakland Transcript.

A Rotten Hulk Wrecked.

Instances are recorded wherein sword-fish have thrust the long sword weapon with which nature has furnished them through the bottoms of ships, causing ugly leaks, and seriously endangering the safety of the vessels. These incidents are not of frequent occurrence, but they do occasionally happen. The latest incident of this kind transpired the other day in Columbus, Ohio. A rather large sword-fish of the Vallandigham species ran his dagger through the hull of a flat-bottomed, half keeled over craft called the Republican platform, making a hole neither so deep as a well, nor so wide as a barn-door, but sufficient in size to wreck the vessel. An examination showed that the vessel, though comparatively new, was entirely unseaworthy. Although her top, outside work and rigging was bedaubed and painted in the gayest manner, and her cabin and sides hung all over with certificates of her soundness and guarantees of her strength, it was found that everything below the water-line was in a rotten, decomposed condition. After this unexpected discovery wonder was not that the sword-fish made such a terrible hole in her bottom, but that she had kept herself afloat so long. The captain and crew escaped. The fact that there were no passengers on board would seem to imply that despite the gaily painted rigging and the conspicuous certificates, they who like to know the seaworthiness of the vessel they sail in, had declined to trust their lives and chattels on board the "Republican Platform." The adoption of the Montgomery resolutions by the Ohio State Convention was a disastrous blow at the policy of the Republican party, and took from the schemers of that party the main argument on which they relied to win the Presidential election of next year. Morton and Grant while swinging around the circle labored hard to convince the people that if the Democrats ever obtained the power they would refuse to recognize the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments, and repudiate the national debt. To avert this they argued the necessity of retaining the Republican party in power. How their schemes have gone awry! The first Democratic State Convention held after the promulgation of the Morton-Grant bull recognizes the existence of the Amendments, denies the right of a party to disregard them, admits them a law of the land, avers the determination of the Democratic party to accept the Constitution as they find it, and give the most positive pledges for the payment of the national debt. These principles will form the basis of the National Democratic platform, and thus melts away the shield which Grant has interposed between himself and the will of the people. Thus falls to the ground the ladder he has erected, and by which he hoped again to climb into the Presidential chair.—Stockton Republidan.

EARTHQUAKE.—A severe shock of earthquake is reported to have occurred at Calistoga on the morning of the 21st, but without doing any serious damage.

"CALISTOGA TRIBUNE."—We have received the first number of a very neat little paper with the above name, published at Calistoga by Thos. McGeorge. Mc. is an old newspaper man and gets out a very pretty and readable paper.

DESTRUCTIVE TORNADO.—A terrible tornado swept over Southwestern Kansas on the evening of June 16th. The town of El Dorado was nearly destroyed. A hundred houses were demolished. The loss is $60,000. The storm did great damage to crops.

OUR COUNTY TICKET.—We to-day place at the head of our paper the names of the gentlemen nominated by the County Convention on Saturday last. Absence at the State Convention, together with a press of other matter, prevents further reference in this issue.

COGHLAN NOMINATED.—The Third Republican Congressional Convention, which met on Wednesday at Marysville, nominated for Congress Hon. John M. Coghlan, of Suisun. Chas. F. Reed, of this county, was his strongest competitor, but not strong enough to win. Charley was told to stay at home and attend to the races to come off in Sacramento in September next. We are satisfied.

COSMOPOLITAN Benevolent Society of Nevada City. Fourth of July, 1871. Capital Prize 25,000, or 4,000, or any amount down to $20. Tickets $2,50. Would you win a prize? Go to the Agent in this town and buy one or more of the aforesaid tickets. The splendid coin prizes paid out by the Society by their drawing in January last, is a sure guarantee of fairness and honesty.

HIGHLY HONORED.—W. W. Pendegast was on Wednesday last nominated for the Senate by the Democrats from Napa, Lake and Mendocino. Mr. Pendegast is recognized as one of the brightest stars in the Democratic firmament. This has been acknowledged in his own district by giving him a renomination to the State Senate, the first time that honor has ever been conferred in California; and the entire Democracy shouts "amen."

BANCROFT'S TOURIST'S GUIDE.—Around the Bay South—Yosemite, San Francisco, Oakland, San Jose, Santa Cruz, Pescadero, Stockton, Sacramento, Big Trees, Lake Tahoe.

The above work is just recieved from the enterprising publishing house of A. L. Bancroft & Co., Market street, San Francisco, and is, as its title purports, a guide to all points named and many others, describing accurately scenery, etc., at various places. The work is gotten up with much taste and is comprehensive and complete.

OVERLAND MONTHLY.—This standard magazine for July is just received, with the following table of contents: With the Sœurs at the Golden Horn; A Kansas Settler; Acrolites; In Vain; A Middle Watch; The Maories; The Home of an Empress; Hearts of Oak (part 4); Beatrice Cenci; Ideal Womanhood (No. 2); Pacific Sea-Coast Views; Tusculum; The Haunted Valley; Why? Current Literature; Etc. Published by John M. Carmany & Co., San Francisco, $4 per annum. Our readers could not make a better investment of that amount than by sending as above for the Overland.

COFFROTH FOR CONGRESS.—Hon. Jas. W. Coffroth was nominated for Congress by acclamation on the 22nd, at Sacramento, to represent the 2d Congressional District. Mr. Coffroth has several times received the same deserved honor at the hands of his party and in every canvass has reduced the Radical majority. Unless we miss our calculation, he will go in and win this time. Mr. Coffroth's eminent ability as a lawyer, as a public speaker and as a parlimentarian, together with his sound Democracy and devotion to the principles of the party entitles him to the position. We are confident he will be elected.

ELIZABETH CADY STANTON.—We have been handed a biographical sketch of this distinguished woman, who is probably the most gifted of all those of her class. This sketch shows how she came to assume her present character—the causes that led to it, etc. That she is a very talented and remarkable woman there can be no doubt. While differing with her views, the talent she displays, and the able manner in which her ideas are presented, are certainly to be admired. As Mrs. Stanton is soon to visit this State, it may be that our people will have an opportunity of listening to her, which would be well worth while, whether they agree with her or not.

HAIGHT NOMINATED.

It was a foregone conclusion that Governor Haight would be nominated by the State Convention as the standard-bearer of the Democracy of California for the next four years, and hence no one will receive the announcement with surprise that he was nominated by acclamation. No opposing candidate came before the Convention. When called to the stand by the unanimous voice of the Democracy in Convention assembled, the vast concourse that filled the magnificent Assembly Chamber sent up cheer on cheer, which told how those Democratic hearts leaped for joy. He is so emphatically the choice of the people, that what little opposition there was in the Convention was entirely lost sight of and every person in that vast throng joined in the glad refrain, as their popular, tried and true chieftan stood before them. As soon as the nomination was announced, cannon roared it forth to the city and surrounding country, firing a salute as the Governor—future as well as present—tendered in grateful terms his acknowledgements to the Convention for the honor of a re-nomination. His speech will be found in another column.

For Lieutenant-Governor, Col. E. J. Lewis, of Tehama, was nominated, who is emphatically a man of and for the masses of the people. Col. Lewis is a young man of great ability, with vigor of character, honesty of purpose, and a determination to stand by the people's rights. And he will do battle for the ticket and the cause from now until after the election in September.

So it may be said of the rest of the candidates. Gentlemen have been selected on account of their fitness for the offices to which they aspired—because of their known capability and integrity. The offices are well distributed over the State, and the Democracy are jubilant, exultant, over the assured success of the entire ticket at the polls. Good nominations go far toward assuring victory; these have been made—made to the satisfaction of every delegate in the State Convention, from Siskiyou to San Diego; and next September we will see such a sweeping Democratic victory in California as was never yet recorded since she has been a member of our glorious Union. Three cheers for Governor Haight and the whole Democratic ticket!

DEATH OF VALLANDIGHAM.—On our first page will be found an account of the death of that distinguished Statesman Clement L. Vallandigham, of Ohio, which was caused by the accidental discharge of a pistol in his own hand. The death of this prominent man at this time is a sad loss to the country. The time had just come when he could vindicate himself from the foul aspersions heaped upon him by lying political opponents, themselves mere pigmies in point of intellect when compared to the great departed. Like Douglas, his death came at a time when he seemed most needed by his country, and when he was in a position to do as much or more than any other man for the success of Democratic principles and consequent good government. We, with hundreds of thousands throughout the land, mourn his death. His funeral took place at Dayton on the 20th, and the telegraph informs us it was attended by an immense concourse of people. The procession was two miles long. Many distinguished gentlemen from all parts of the Union were present. Among the pall-bearers were Thurman, Cox, Pugh and G. W. McCook. He was buried by the Masonic fraternity, Grand High Priest Charles C. Kiefer officiating.

A STRICKEN WOMAN.—When the accident occurred to Mr. Vallandigham by which he lost his life, Mrs. Vallandighain was on her way to attend the funeral of a deceased brother in Baltimore, Hon. John L. McMahon, one of the most distinguished lawyers of Maryland, who died in Cumberland on the night of the 15th. She had no sooner ceased to gaze upon the corpse of her dearly loved brother than she was summoned to return to her dying husband, whose spirit departed before her arrival, and nothing was left but the cold clay of he who had been more to her than brother or father—the best of husbands. It is said misfortunes seldom come singly. In this case, Mrs. Vallandigham is visited by a two-fold calamity that it seems almost impossible for the human heart to bear.

Since the above was written, a telegram from Dayton June 22d, says Mrs, Vallandigham is unconucious from the effects of the shock, failing to recognize her friends, and her physicans and others fear the result may be fatal.

NEW DEMOCRATIC CENTRAL ORGAN. While in attendance at the State Convention this week, we learned from reliable gentlemen of Sacramento that a new Democratic daily paper is soon to be started in that city, with one of California's most gifted Democratic writers as editor—a gentlemen for many years connected with the press of the State, and in whom the Democracy have unbounded confidence. We sincerely hope the Democracy at the Capital will see the necessity of establishing such an organ, for in the "State paper," the party has found but a stumbling-block, and a hindrance, instead of an advocate.

THIRD DISTRICT CONGRESSMAN.—Yesterday the Delegates in the Third Congressional District Convention nominated Hon. George Pearce, of Sonoma county, to represent this District in Congress, to succeed Hon. J. A. Johnson. Judging from the calibre of the two men, Coghlan will stand but a poor show in the contest for Representative before the people of the district.

Democratic State Convention.

The delegates to the Democratic State Convention of California assembled in the elegant Assembly Chamber of State at noon, on Tuesday, June 20th, to nominate candidates for State officers.

The Hall was tastefully decorated, a large American flag being suspended behind the speaker's stand, two militia regimental flags occupying positions lower down—one on each side. At the entrance to the floor of the House, an elegant silk flag was gracefully hung. The seats of each delegation were designated by printed cards and charts, to obviate confusion, and for the reporters the most complete arrangements were made by Gen. Cazneau and his Assistant Major Edwards.

Hon. J. P. Hoge, of San Francisco, Chairman of the State Central Committee, called the Convention to order, and appointed as temporary Sergeants-at arms, Thos. Chandler, of San Francisco, Geo. W. Faylor, of Sacramento, and J. W. Powell, of San Mateo. At the opening, a full delegation appeared to be present, and the galleries and lobbies were crowded with interested spectators.

Colonel J. T. Farley, of Amador, nominated Hon. James W. Coffroth, of Sacramento, as Temporary Chairman of Convention, who was unanimously elected. Mr. Coffroth was greeted with warm applause, and taking his place at the speaker's desk, he thanked his fellow Democrats of California for this renewed assurance of kindness.

J. W. Mandeville, of Tuolumne, nominated Henry George, of San Francisco, as Temporary Secretary, and that gentleman was chosen as such. Curtis H. Lindley, E. H. Pomeroy and John Steiglitz were elected Assistant Secretaries.

The following were placed in nomination for Sergeant-at-Arms: Thomas Chandler, John M. Hall, and John Leary, of San Francisco; George W. Faylor, B. L. Morrison, John Greer and James P. Dray, of Sacramento; E. F. Boyle, of Yolo.

On motion of Mandeville, all the above names were referred to the Committee on Permanent Orgauization.

On motion of Mandeville, a committee of seven was appointed on Permanent Organization, consisting of the following delegates: J. W. Mandeville, of Tuolumne; J. West Martin, of Alameda; J. V. Vogelsdorff, of San Francisco; James H. Moore, of Sacramento; W. T. Ellis, of Yuba; H. McPherson, of San Francisco; and T. F. Miller, of Butte.

Wm. Minis, of Yolo, then moved that a committee of eleven be appointed on Order of business, which was amended by Lathrop, of Shasta, that one be appointed from each Judicial District.

The Chairman appointed the following as a Committee on Order of Business:

G. W. Bailey, of Contra Costa; E. R. Galvin, of Tuolumne; Niles Searles, of Nevada; Chas. E. McLane, of San Francisco, and Wm. Minis, of Yolo.

The report of Senator Irwin, of Siskiyou, Chairman of the Commitee on Credentials, was received and adopted. 318 delegates were reported as entitled to seats.

J. W. Mandeville reported as permanent officers the following, who were elected:

President, James W. Coffroth.

Vice-Presidents—Ex-Governor Downey, of Los Angeles; M. L. McDonald, of San Francisco; Wm. Minis, of Yolo; and W. A. Eaken, of Tuolumne.

Secretary—Henry George, of San Francisco. Assistant Secretaries—Curtis H. Lindley, E. H. Pomeroy and John Steiglitz.

Sergeants-at-Arms—Thomas Chandler and Richard Murray, of San Francisco; George W. Faylor, of Sacramento; and John M. Paul, of San Mateo.

Pages—Milton S. Clarkson, of San Francisco, and Sam. Marks, of Sacramento.

A motion was then made to adjourn until eight o'clock in the evening, and the Convention adjourned.

At twenty minutes past eight o'clock the Chairman called the Convention to order.

Bailey, of Contra Costa, offered the report of the Committee on of Business, which was adopted:

First—Report of the Committee on platform and its adoption.

Second—Nomination of candidates.

The Committee further recommend that each and every person who is placed in nomination be required to come before the Convention, endorse the platform, and pay to the Secretary ten dollars for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the Convention.

The Chairman recommended that the Convention levy assessments for the purpose of raising funds to defray the expenses of the Convention.

Wilcox, of Mariposa, moved that each delegate be assessed two dollars.

Minis, of Yolo, thought that one dollar was sufficient, and so moved, suggesting that this was a dry year, and his motion prevailed.

The Chairman announced to the Convention that it would be impossible for the Committee on Resolutions to report before morning, and the Convention then adjourned until nine o'clock in the morning.

The Convention was called to order the next morning at 9½ o'clock.

Colonel J. P. Hoge, of San Francisco, appeared upon the stand, and on behalf of the Committee on Resolutions, presented a report, embracing the platform of the Democratic party. After the resolutions had been read by Colonel Hoge, they were adopted.

Resolved, by the Democratic party of California:

First—That waving all differences of opinion as to the extraordinary means by which they were brought about, we accept the natural and legitimate results of the war, so far as waged for the ostensible purpose to maintain the Union and the constitutional rights and powers of the Federal Government.

Second—That we regard the three several amendments to the Constitution recently adopted as a settlement in fact of all the issues of the war, and that the same are no longer issues before the country.

Third—That we demand that the rules of strict construction as proclaimed by the Democratic fathers, and embodied in the tenth amendment to the Federal Constitution, be applied to the Constitution as it is, including the three recent amendments to that instrument; that the absolute equality of each State in the Union is a fundamental principle of the Federal Government; that we shall always cherish and uphold the American system of State and local government for State and local purposes, and of the General Government for general purposes only, as essential to the maintainance of civil liberty; and are unalterably opposed to all attempts at centralization or consolidation of power in the hands of the Federal Government.

Fourth—That we demand of Congress universal amnesty for all political offenses.

Fifth—That while we condemn all riotous and unlawful combinations to disturb the peace or infringe the rights of any citizen, we denounce the act commonly called the "Bayonet Bill," passed by Congress, and the more recent act commonly called the "Kuklux Bill," as enacted for no other purpose than to complete the work of centralization, and by establishing a military despotism to perpetuate the present Administration without regard to the will of the people; that these measures are not only inconsistent with the whole theory and character of the Federal Government, and revolutionary and dangerous in their tendency, but they are in direct conflict with the spirit of the letter of the Constitution, including the amendments which they pretend to enforce.

Sixth—That we are in favor of a tariff for revenue only, and we denounce the system commonly called the Protective system, as unjust, oppressive, prolific of corruption, and injurious to the best interests of the country; that the tariff legislation of the Republican party during the past ten years has destroyed our shipping, paralized industry, and plundered the mass of the people for the benefit of capitalists and monopolists.

Seventh—That the prodigate grants of vast tracts of the public domain made by the Radical majority in Congress to railroad corporations, regardless of the rights of settlers, and without any proper conditions or restrictions, are a fraud upon the people of the country.

Eighth—That the failure of Congress to repeal the odious income tax, the maintenance of a vast army of tax gatherers to harass the people and eat out their substance, and the failure to restrict the importation of Chinese coolies, whose competition tends directly to cheapen and degrade white labor, constitute a catalogue of grievances for which a Radical Congress will be held justly accountable.

Ninth—That we are uncompromisingly opposed to subsidizing railway or other private corporations out of the public treasury, to the overwhelming increase of debt and taxation; that laws which impose taxes upon the mass of citizens in aid of such corporations, whether in the form of donations, loans or subscriptions, are an invasion of the rights of private property and a departure from sound maxims of government, and result in the bankruptcy of towns and counties; that they lead to gross abuses; are a prolific source of corruption, and violate the cardinal principle of Democracy—to wit: That government is instituted for the welfare and security of the mass of the people, and not for the aggrandizement of a favored few; and that the law upon the statute book known as the five per cent. law ought to be immediately repealed.

Tenth—That we are in favor of amending the State Constitution so as to provide additional safeguards against the taxation of private property in aid of private corporations or individuals, and against improvident legislation, and of securing needed constitutional reforms.

Eleventh—That the Democratic party, deriving its strength from the working classes, is the natural enemy of monopolies, and has always been and always will be ready to support and urge such measures for the elevation of the laboring population and the amelioration of their condition as an enlightened policy may suggest; that we point to the legislation of the past three years, reducing the hours of labor, requiring public work to be done by the day, and seeking to restrict Chinese immigration, as evidence of the sympathy of the Democracy with the wishes and interests of the laboring classes.

Twelfth—That we believe that the labor of our white people should not be brought into competition with the labor of a class of inferior people, whose living costs comparatively nothing, and who care and know little about our churches, schools, societies, and social and political institutions, and that we are, therefore, opposed to Chinese immigration; that Congress, by its legislation having sought to foster such immigration and to prevent our local authorities from interfering with it, and by its attempted abrogation of the foreign miners' tax, deserves our severest condemnation, and has given us another illustration of its intention to concentrate all power in the hands of the Federal Government.

Thirteenth—That the public lands yet left to the United States and the State of California should be disposed of only to actual settlers in limited quantities, and on the most favorable terms; and the laws, both State and Federal, should be so framed as to insure this result, so vital to a free people.

Fourteenth—That the interference by the President of the United States with the military power of the Union, in elections to overawe the people and control the right of suffrage, is treason to the Constitution.

Fifteenth—That we are compelled, by profound convictions of their injustice and impolicy, to record our solemn protest against the leading measures of the National Administration, and we pledge all the power with which we may be intrusted to earnest efforts to lessen the expenditures of the Government, to reduce and equalize taxation, to hasten the extinction of the public debt, and by honest legislation to protect the public domain against the rapacity of speculators and robbers, and restore early and cordial union and fraternity to the States and the people of the Republic.

Sixteenth—That by thorough organization and concerted action, another victory is within the reach of the Democratic party of this State, and this Convention pledges itself to effect such organization and action, and to secure, by all honorable means, the election of the candidates this day nominated.

Seventeenth—And whereas, since the advent of the Democratic party to power in 1867, the rate of taxation for State purposes has been reduced from $1 13 to eighty-six cents on each one hundred dollars of property, and the State debt reduced more than one million of dollars, at the same time that the School Fund has been increased, and large sums of money have been judiciously expended upon public buildings, a State University organized and put in operation, the tide lands of the State rescued from the grasp of speculators, and sold for the public benefit, special franchise legislation successfully checked for the first time by executive veto, laws enacted for the revision of our civil and criminal code, the equalization of assessments, and the re funding of the State debt, and a successful opposition inaugurated to any taxation of the people for the benefit of railway or other private corporations, besides other useful reforms; therefore,

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the Democratic State Administration, and declare it eminently entitled to the confidence and approval of the whole people.

Next in order was the nomination of a candidate for Governor, and J. W. Martin, of Alameda, placed in nomination Henry H. Haight for Governor of the State of California. The name of Gov. Haight brought out deafening shouts of applause. As soon as the cheering had subsided Mr. Ryan, of Humboldt moved that Henry H. Haight be nominated by acclamation. The motion prevailed and Governor Haight was nominated by the unanimous voice of the immense throng of people as well as delegates with scarcely a dissenting voice. Having been sent for, Gov. Haight made his appearance (upon which the Capitol building was made to echo with sounds of tumultuous applause), when taking the stand he addressed the Convention as follows:

GOVERNOR HAIHHT'S SPEECH.

Mr. President and gentlemen of the Convention:

Commonplace language would very poorly express the warmth of feeling with which I respond to this most flattering evidence of the respect and esteem given me by you and by the people whom you represent. I am very conscious that the designation of my name for re-election with so much unanimity by the Democratic masses, and in so flattering a manner, is rather owing to events beyond any human control or foresight than to any special claims or merits of my own. That the people of the State, whose interests I have certainly had at heart, have manifested such generous confidence in me, such generous appreciation of my attempts to serve them, is all the reward that I either expect or desire for my endeavors to serve them in the administration of their government. I have but a word or two to say, not wishing to detain you from the important duties you have to discharge, as I know the most of you are desirous to return as soon as possible to your homes and business—for this large and respectable body contains a larger proportion, I think, than any Convention I have ever seen assembled in this State, of the tax-paying, farming and producing classes. You have your business to attend to, and therefore I will not detain you but for a word or two. The history of Government, and of changes in government, and of the rise and fall of political parties, is a history of the conflict between irresponsible and arbitrary power on one side, and popular rights and liberty on the other. We support the Democratic party because we think its principles and its policy are most in accordance with the legitimate objects of government. There is not much room for discussion as to the legitimate object of government. The main object is to afford security to person and property with the least possible interference with individual liberty. And hence, I say, we support the principles and policy of the Democratic party; hence we oppose the protective tariff which levies contributions upon the mass of the people for the benefit of manufacturing corporations or manufacturers; hence we deny the right of the Government to substitute paper currency for gold and silver, which is the currency of the people [applause]; hence we oppose the introduction of Chinese laborers to compete with the labor of our working classes, and hence we oppose any attempt to transfer from the people the administration of laws for the prevention and punishment of crime, from the regularly constituted tribunal to the President, in his capacity as commander-in-chief, and his military subordinates; hence we oppose the depriving of the people of their right of inheritance in the public domain to railroad corporations [applause]; and hence we oppose taxation for the benefit of private corporations, railroad or otherwise—the taxation of the people. [Applause.] I have said that the history of government and political parties is the history of a conflict between irresponsible and arbitrary power on the one side and popular rights on the other. The forces which in other countries in other times have appeared upon the side of hereditary rank and privilege, in our day appear in the form of chartered and incorporated capital, seeking by means more despicable to establish a tyranny more galling and unscrupulous than any which ever existed in the shape of hereditary rank, in the shape of monarchy or aristocracy. The struggle in our day seems to be between the selfish greed of corporations undertaking to pervert the system of government to their private benefit on the one side, and the people of the country striving to protect themselves against the creations of their own generosity. In such a struggle as this the Democratic party can be on but one side [great applause]—the side of the people. And I rejoice to say that they have declared themselves on that side in a manner so unequivocal as to leave no room for doubt or cavil. Fellow-citizens, I have no new promises to make, further than to repeat what I said four years ago. Nothing was further from my thought at that time when complying with the call made upon me, than that I should ever appear as a candidate, or that any circumstances would arise which in the judgment of the people, or in my own, would render it proper for me to be a candidate a second time for this office, or any other. And I have only to say now, that if we shall succeed in this canvass, and if I shall be re-elected, as I have a modest assurance that I shall be [applause], I will endeavor to administer the government in such a manner as to leave you no reason to be ashamed of your choice. [Applause].

The nomination of Lieut. Gov. being next in order, Col. E. J. Lewis of Tehama, Lieut. Gov. Holden of Mendocino, and Charles Gildea of El Dorado were nominated, and Col. Lewis proved to be the choice of the Convention by a large majority, and his nomination was made unanimous. The names of the other nominees of the Convention will be found at the head of our columns, where we have placed the entire ticket.

The nominations of Attorney General, Surveyor General and Superintendent of Public Instruction were made unanimous, there being no opposing candidates.

The contest for the office of State Printer was an animated one, there being several candidates before the Convention, the most prominent among them being John T. Barry, J. F. Linthicum, W. A. January and M. D. Carr. Mr. John T. Barry, of San Francisco, one of the proprietors of the Monitor, succeeded in carrying off the coveted prize.

We doubt if ever a State Convention in this or any other State, was conducted more harmoniously or gave such universal satisfaction as this one has done. There were at first conflicting elements, but by a proper distribution of the offices entire satisfaction was given to every section of the State. The result of the labors of the Convention is a ticket that could not have been surpassed.

The Convention having completed its labors by the election of a Central Committee, on Thursday evening adjourned sine die, having been in session three days.

Land Dispute.

KNIGHT'S LANDING June 20, 1871.

ED. DEMOCRAT:—A very laughable occurrence took place a few miles South of this place on or about the 9th instant: Mr. W——, who claims all the land in that locality as swamp, and is not willing to respect a settler's right or a Government patent, and thought that law was too slow a process by which to get possession of the land in dispute, hauled out some lumber and commenced to build a house on Mr. E——s' land. Mr. E. went and requested W. to stop work, and told him that he was building on his land, and that he had a United States patent for it. W. said he was aware of that fact; but, said he, I have a State filing on it and will hold the land in spite of you. E. found he could do nothing by talking, so, late on Saturday evening E. moved to the house and took possession. On Sunday morning early W. took his bed on his back and expected to move right in and finish his camp, but he found E. on hand. W. wanted possession, but E. said, "I can't see it." So he left the rancho and has not been heard from since.

Yours, etc., B. H. R.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

As remedy for Bronchial Affections and Chronic diseases of the Lungs, nothing ever before discovered equals Dr. Pierce's Alt Ext. or golden Medical Discovery. It is a great blood purifier and restorative tonic, and cures Pimples, Blotches and eruptions on the face, making the complexion clear and fair. Sold by druggists.

FORTY YEARS' EXPERIANCE have tested the virtues of Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry, and the result is that it is the best remedy extant for pulmonary and lung diseases; embraces a whole range from a slight cold to a settled consumption. Were it not for its merits, it would long since have "died, and made no sign."

THE WORLD TO-DAY LAUGHS.—Therapeutics of fifty years ago. Blistering the head, emptying the veins, and rasping the bowels with cathartics as irritating as chestnut-burrs, will soon be consigned by universal limbo of rejected fallicies. In the meantime Dr. Walker's Vinegar Bitters, the true ally of Nature, are effecting by a mild and painless process, such of dyspepsia, liver complaint and periodical fevers, as the world half a century ago would have deemed miraculous.

If you desire a mild, pleasant and agreeable Cathartic, which will cause neither nausea or griping pains, use nature's remedy, Helmbold's Grape pills. They are purely vegetable; their component parts being Catawba "Grape Juice and Fluid Extract Rhubarb." Should you desire a brilliant complexion, youthful appearance, new life, new fresh blood and renewed vigor, use Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla.

PAIN KILLER
PROP.'
PERRY DAVIS & SON PROVIDENCE R.I.
1840 1870

The "PAIN KILLER" may justly be styled the great medicine of the world, for there is no region of the globe into which it has not found its way, and been largely used and highly prized. Moreover, there is no clime to which it has not proved to be well adapted for the cure of a considerable variety of diseases; it is a speedy and safe remedy for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises, wounds and various other injuries, as well as for dysentery, diarrhœa and bowel complaints generally, it is admirably suited for every race of men on the globe.

It is a very significant fact, that notwithstanding the long period of years that the "Pain Killer" has been before the world, it has never lost one whit of its popularity, but, on the contrary, the call for it has steadily increased, from its first discovery, and at no previous time has the demand for it been so great, or the quantity made been so large, as it is to-day.

Another significant fact is, that nowhere has the Pain Killer ever been in higher repute, or been more generally used by families and individuals, than it has been here at home, where it was first discovered and introduced. That the Pain Killer will continue to be, what we have styled it, the great medicine of the world, there cannot be the shadow of a doubt.—[Providence Advertiser.

A Chapter of Facts.

Space is valuable in a newspaper, and it is therefore proposed in this advertisement to condense a variety of facts, important to the public into a small compass. Those facts re-er to Hostetter's Stomach Bitters—what that celebrated medicine is, and what it will do. In the first place, then, the article is a stimulant, tonic and alterative, consisting of a combination of an absolutely pure spiritous agent with the most valuable medicinal vegetable substances that Botanic research has placed at the disposal of the chemist and the physician. These ingredients are compounded with great care, and in such proportions as to produce a preparation which invigorates without exciting the general system, and tones, regulates and controls the stomach, the bowels, the liver, and the minor secretive organs.

What this great restorative will do must be gathered from what it has done. The case of dyspepsia, or any other form of indigestion, in which it has been persistently administered without effecting a radical cure, is yet to be heard from, and the same may be said of bilious disorders, intermittent fever, nervous affections, general debility, constipation, sick headache, mental disabilities to which the feeble are so subject. It purifies all the fluids of the body, including the blood, and the gentle stimulous which it imparts to the nervous system is not succeeded by the slightest reaction. This is a chapter of facts which readers, for their own sakes, should mark and remember.

The Yolo Democrat.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

The soft exquisite beauty of the lines above entitled will be appreciated by most of our readers. They belong to that rare class of poems which, once read, haunt the imagination with a perpetual charm. A more natural expression of true, solemn feeling than that contained in the closing stanza, is seldom found:

I've wandered to the village, Tom; I've sat beneath the tree,
Upon the old school house play ground which sheltered you and me;
But none were there to greet me, Tom; and few were left to know,
That played with us upon the green some twenty years ago.

The grass is just as green, Tom; bare-footed boys at play,
Were sporting just as we did then, with spirits just as gay,
But the "Master" sleeps upon the hill, which coated o'er with snow,
Afforded us a sliding place, just twenty years ago.

The old school house is altered now; the benches are replaced,
By new ones very like the same our pen-knives had defaced.
But the same old bricks are in the wall, the bell swings to and fro,
Its music just the same, dear Tom, 'twas twenty years ago.

The boys were playing some old game, beneath that same old tree;
I have forgot the name just now—you've played the same with me,
On the same spot; 'twas played with knives, by throwing so-and-so;
The loser had a task to do—there twenty years ago.

The river's running just as still; the willows on it's side,
Are larger than they were, Tom, the stream appears less wide—
But the grape vine swing is ruined now, where once we played the beau,
And swung our sweet-hearts—pretty girls—just twenty years ago.

The spring that bubbled 'neath the hill, close by the spreading beech,
Is very low—'twas so high, that we could scarcely reach,
And, kneeling down to get a drink, dear Tom, I started so,
To see how sadly I had changed, since twenty years ago.

Near by the spring, upon an elm, you know I cut your name,
Your sweet-heart's just beneath, Tom, and you did mine the same;
Some heartless wretch has pegled the bark, 'twas dying sure but slow,
Just as the one, whose name you cut, died twenty years ago.

My lids have long been dry, Tom, but tears came to my eyes,
I thought of her I loved so well, those early broken ties;
I visited the old church yard, and took some flowers to strew,
Upon the graves of those we loved, some twenty years ago.

Some are in the church yard laid—some sleep beneath the sea;
But few are left of our old class, excepting you and me;
And when our time shall come, Tom, and we are called to go,
I hope they'll lay us where we played, just twenty years ago.

Ten thousand dollars a minute is a good salary for a man not a Prime Minister nor an Emperor, but simply a horse jockey. Yet that is what John Wells recieved May 24th. He rode Baron Rothchild's colt for the Derby at Epcom and won it; whereupon the Baron, overjoyed at his success (for it had been his daring ambition, never hitherto gratified, to win the Blue Ribbon of the turf,) presented the rider with the stakes, amounting to six thousand pounds sterling, or $32,000. As the race occupied a little over two and three-quarter minutes, it will be seen that the fortunate rider's time was worth about $200 a second.

There came near being a serious riot between the white and colored soldiers of Boston, who had been decorating the soldier's graves at Mount Auburn, the white soldiers had engaged a number of horse-cars to convey them from the cemetery into the city, and some of the negroes, knowing that the cars had been specially chartered, took seats in them when they came out of the cemetery. The white soldiers drove out the colored ones, who formed a line of battle, and with fixed bayonets were about to charge upon their aggressors, when reinforcements arrived from the cemetery and the cars in sufficient numbers to thwart their determination to slaughter the whites. Matters looked serious for a few moments, and but for the overpowering number of white soldiers there would have undoubtedly been a serious affray.

Secretary of State.

AN ACT

To provide for the payment of the funded indebtedness of the State of California, and to contract a funded debt for that purpose.

[Approved, April 2, 1870.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. For the purpose of liquidating and providing for the payment of the funded indebtedness of the State of California hereinafter specified, and to lessen the burden of taxation, the Governor of the State, the Controller of State and the Treasurer of State, and their successors in office, shall constitute a Board of Commissioners, to be styled the Loan Commissioners of the State of California, and shall have and exercise the powers and perform the duties hereinafter provided.

Sec. 2. The said Loan Commissioners are hereby authorized to issue and sell not exceeding three millions seven hundred thousand dollars of the bonds of said State, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, which interest shall be payable semi-annually, in gold coin, on the second days in January and July in each year, at the office of the Treasurer of State. The principal of said bonds shall be made payable in gold coin within twenty years after the date of their issue, and shall be of such denominations as the said Loan Commissioners shall direct, but not less than five hundred dollars; shall bear the date of their issue, and shall be signed by the said Loan Commissioners, and shall have the seal of the State affixed thereto; and the faith of the State of California is hereby pledged for the payment of said bonds and the interest accruing thereon as herein provided.

Sec. 3. Coupons for the interest shall be attached to each bond so that they may be removed without injury or mutilation to the bond; said coupons, consecutively numbered, shall be signed by the Treasurer of the State.

Sec. 4. Before the sale of any of said bonds the said Loan Commissioners shall cause notices of such sale to be published, for the space of one month in three daily newspapers published in English, one in the City of New York, one in the City of London, in England, and one in the Capital of the State; in and for the space of one month in a daily newspaper published in French, in the City of Paris, in France, and for the space of one month in a daily newspaper published in German, in the City of Frankfort-on-the-Main, in Germany. Such notice shall specify the amount of bonds to be sold, the rate of interest they shall bear, the day and hour of sale, which shall be at the State Capital, and that sealed proposals will be received by the said Loan Commissioners for the purchase of such bonds. Within one month from the expiration of such publication, and on the day and hour named in said notice, the said Loan Commissioners shall open all sealed proposals received by them, and shall award the purchase of said bonds to such bidders as will, in their opinion, make the most advantageous bid for the State; provided, that said Loan Commissioners may reject any or all bids, if they deem it to the advantage of the State; and provided further, that they may refuse to make any award unless sufficient security shall be furnished by the bidders for the compliance with the terms of their bids; and provided further that said bonds shall not be sold at less than ninety-one cents on the dollar, in gold coin, par value.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer and Controller of State each to keep a separate record of all bonds sold under the provisions of this Act, showing the number, date, amount and rate of interest of each bond, and to whom the same was issued.

Sec. 6. The sum of one thousand dollars is hereby appropriated out of the General Fund for the payment of the expense that may be incurred by the Loan Commissioners in having such bonds prepared and said notices published.

Sec. 7. The proceeds of such bonds shall be paid into the State Treasury and shall be applied to the payment of the following bonds, in the order of their issuance:

First—The outstanding bonds issued under the Act entitled an Act to provide for certain equitable claims against the State of California, and to contract a funded debt for that purpose, approved April twenty-eight eighteen hundred and fifty-seven.

Second—The outstanding bonds issued under the Act of eighteen hundred and sixty.

Third—the outstanding soldiers' relief bonds.

Fourth—The outstanding soldiers' bounty bonds.

Sec. 8. All persons having any of the bonds specified in section seven of this Act shall, upon presentation of such bonds to the said Loan Commissioners, be entitled to exchange them at their par value for bonds authorized to be issued under this Act, at the rate of ninety-three cents on the dollar, par value, but no bond shall be issued for a less sum than five hundred dollars, nor for a fractional part of a hundred dollars, but the said Loan Commissioners may issue certificates of such fractional parts not bonded, which said certificate shall be transferable and entitled to be paid out of the proceeds of the sales of any bonds provided for in section seven of this Act. The Loan Commissioners shall cancel each bond so exchanged, and shall indorse on such bond the date on which they received the same, and from whom, the number and amount of the bond issued in exchange therefor, and shall file such bond in the office of the Secretary of State.

Sec. 9. Whenever there shall be in the State Treasury, from the proceeds of the sale of bonds issued under this Act, a sum of ten thousand dollars or more, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to advertise in two newspapers, printed in English, one in New York and one in the Capital of the State, for two months, which advertisement shall state the amount of money in the treasury applicable to the redemption of bonds, and the number of bonds, numbering therein the order of their issuance, which are redeemable; and three months from the date of the expiration of such advertisement, such bonds, unless sooner paid, shall cease to draw interest, but the money for the redemption of such bonds shall remain in the treasury to pay such bonds whenever presented.

Sec. 10. For the payment within twenty years of the principal and interest of the bonds issued under this Act, there shall be and is hereby levied annually, after the bonds have been issued under this Act, such rate of tax on each one hundred dollars of the assessed value of real and personal property in the State, to be computed by the Controller of State on the basis of the assessed value of such property for the preceding year, as shall produce annually, for the first five years, seven per centum of the amount of such bonds issued; for the next ten years thereafter, twelve per centum of the amount of such bonds issued, and thereafter, until all the bonds issued under this Act are paid, fifteen per centum of the amount of such bonds issued. The Controller shall certify the rate of tax thus computed by him to the several County Auditors, and the said Auditors are hereby directed and required to enter such rate on the assessment rolls of their respective counties, in the same manner and with the same effect as is provided by law in relation to other State taxes. Every tax levied under the provisions or authority of this Act is hereby made a lien against the property assessed, which lien shall attach on the first Monday in March in each year, and shall not be satisfied or removed until such tax has been paid. All moneys derived from taxes authorized by the provisions of this section shall be paid into the State treasury, and shall be applied—

First—To the payment of the interest on the bonds issued by the provisions of this Act.

Second—To the payment of the principal of such bonds.

Provided, that all moneys remaining in the State treasury on the third day of January, in each year, for the first five years after the issuance of any bonds under this Act, after all the interest on such bonds then due has been paid, shall be transferred by the Treasurer of State to the General Fund.

Sec. 11. Whenever, on the third day of January or July, in any year, after the expiration of five years from the date of issuance of any bonds under this Act, there remains, after the payment of the interest, as provided in the preceeding section, a surplus of ten thousand dollars or more, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to advertise, for the space of one month, in one daily newspaper, published in English, in the City of New York, and for one month, in one daily newspaper, published in English, at the State Capital, for sealed proposals, to be opened one month after the expiration of such publication by the Treasurer, in presende of the Governor or Controller, at the State Capitol, for the surrender of bonds issued under this Act, which advertisement shall state the amount of money he has on hand for the purpose of redemption; and they shall accept the lowest proposals, at rates not exceeding par value, as may redeem the greatest amount of bonds, until the amount of cash on hand for the redemption is exausted; provided, however, in case a sufficient amount of such bonds shall not be offered, as aforesaid, to exhaust the Sinking Fund to a less amount than ten thousand dollars, then it is hereby made the duty of the Treasurer to advertise in two newspapers, one in New York and one at the Capital of this State, for three months, which advertisement shall state the amount in the Sinking Fund, and the number of bonds, numbering them in the order of their issuance, which such fund is set apart to pay and discharge; and if such bond so numbered in such advertisements shall not be presented for payment and cancellation at the expiration of such publications, then such fund shall remain in the treasury to discharge such bonds whenever presented, but they shall draw no interest after the expiration of such publication; before any of said bonds shall be paid, they shall be presented to the Controller, who shall endorse on each bond the amount due thereon, and shall write across the face of each bond the date of its surrender and the name of the person surrendering.

Sec. 12. The Treasurer of State shall keep a full and particular account and record of all his proceedings under this Act, and of the bonds redeemed and surrendered, and he shall transmit to the Governor an abstract of all his proceedings under this Act, with his annual report, to be by the Governor laid before the Legislature; and all books and papers pertaining to the matter provided for in this Act shall at all times be open to the inspection of any party interested, or the Governor or the Attorney General, or a committee of either branch of the Legislature, or a joint committee of both.

Sec. 13. The Great Medical Discovery!

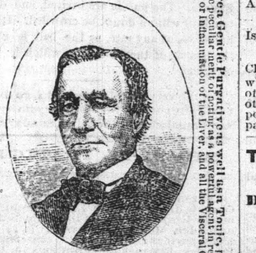
Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA

VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands

Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?



THEY ARE NOT A VILE

FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.

Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.

J. WALKER, Proprietor, R. H. McDONALD & CO., Druggists and Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 and 34 Commerce Street, New York.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS.

DR. JULIEN PERRAULT,

Doctor of Medicine of the Faculty of Paris; Graduate of the University "Queen's College," Canada, and Physician of the St. John Baptiste Society of San Francisco.

DR. PERRAULT has the pleasure to inform his numerous old patients and others seeking

CONFIDENTIAL MEDICAL ADVICE

That he can be consulted daily at his office, No. 502 Montgomery St., northeast corner of Sacramento St., San Francisco, Rooms 9, 10 and 11, first floor, up stairs.

CONSULTATIONS AND CORRESPONDENCE IN ENGLISH, FRENCH AND GERMAN.

Having made the various forms of Sexual Disease, Nervous and Physical Debility the subject of minute research and special practice for many years, Dr. Perrault continues to treat these afflictions successfully by the newest scientific methods, and without resort to obnoxious remedies.

Local Irritation, Night Sweats, Sleep disturbed by Dreams, Pain in the Back and Head, Sallow Complexion, Pimples in the face, Dark Rings under the Eyes, Fainting Coughs, Hectic Flushes, Great Weakness of Sight, Memory and Intellectual Faculties, Clouded Ideas, Dizziness, Diffidence, Disinclination to attend to business, to go into Society, etc., are some of the prominent symptoms of

NERVOUS AND PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,

—the result of injurious habits contracted in youth, which, if not timely checked, will never fail to induce premature decay and terminate in total loss of manhood.

Patients complaining of one or more of the above symptoms should immediately apply to Dr. Perrault, either in person or by letter, as he has discovered new and reliable remedies which enable him to guarantee a Speedy and Radical cure of

SEMINAL WEAKNESS AND IMPOTENCE.

Sexual Disease in any stage, speedily cured; and all taints left by virulent disorder and the injudicious use of mercury, entirely removed from the system.

SUFFERERS,—and particularly those who have tried this boasted doctor and that advertised physician until worn out and discouraged,—can apply to Dr. Perrault with the assurance of relief. We invite investigation;—claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody; but we do claim that in all cases taken under treatment we fulfill our promises.

Dr. Perrault's diplomas are in his office, where patients can see for themselves that they are under the care of a regularly educated practitioner.
